

As an Indiana citizen, I am VERY unhappy with the proposed legislation that would diminish Indiana's Do Not Call registry. Prior to this law going into effect, my family was inundated with calls every day. Our answering machine was full every afternoon when we returned home, and our dinner was interrupted nearly every night. We even had calls in the early morning hours on weekends. I am strongly opposed to ANY changes in our current law.